Bye Law Four: Union Networks

1. Definition

- Union Networks are defined as groups or meetings where membe come together to exchange views and participate in activity, which will stimulate members' interest and inform Students in areas of
- N Additional Networks may be formed, with the guidance of the Executive to focus on specific issues of students or a constituent part of the membership

2. Network Purposes

- 21. them in achieving the best student experience To provide an opportunity for students to discuss the issues that matter to
- 2.2. To make proposals and recommendations to Students' Council on specific issues. Representative
- 2.3. To direct and inform the Union's policy and campaign activity
- 2.4. To elect a Chair in line with the provisions of Bye Law 7.

3. Provisions Applicable to all Networks

- ω -All Networks shall keep summary notes of their proceedings and submit them to Students' Representative Council if required for approval.
- 3.2. A quorum for a Network may be requested by Executive but in normal circumstances shall not be required
- ယ ယ absence of such a person by an appropriate Executive Officer or other Each Network meeting shall be convened by the Network Chair and in the member of the Network Committee
- 3.4. Any self-defining current student shall be entitled to speak or vote at the relevant Network meeting.

4. Network Duties

- 4.1. To create an environment that is inclusive to all attendees and promotes participation
- To seek to recruit volunteers to participate in campaigns and activities
- 4.3. experience to inform the future developments and campaign issues To consider market research or student feedback in relation to the student
- To provide information and report on activity to Students' Representative

5. Duties of Network Chairs

- To represent the views of students provided through the forum to Students' Representative Council and where appropriate the Executive Committee and University.
- S i made available to To report on the key activities/issues of their Network. This report will be made available to Students' Representative Council and on the Union Representative
- 5.3. To promote participation by self-defining students in meetings and activities. and publicise all meetings in advance.